NAMES

A. سالبيه الاسفاقس

G. Ελελίσφακος, Σφάκελος.

L. Salvia Virtutis.

I. Salvia.

G. Salbey.

F. Sauge.

S. Salva.

D. Fyn Salie.

SAGE OF VIRTUE

PARTS are th
PREPAR
in the N

PLACE

This Sage is planted in Gardens

Tis flower
August

DESCRIPTION.

The Roots are Small and Fibrous, the Stalks woody and Square. The Leaves grow very Rugged, of a Light whitish Green inclining to Willow, set full of white Hairs all o rugged and Whiter on the Backs. At every Pair of Leaves, young Shoots spring out Time of Flowering approaches, the Joints grow longer, and the Leaves smaller 2, in Spikes on the Stalks. The Empalements 3, are ribb'd, and divided into five tender with Brown. The Flowers 4, are a Purplish Blue, with two Stripes from the Inside o down the lower Leaf, of a deeper Colour spotted with White. At 5, the upper part is ta the Pistil 6, 2 two Chives 7, that upward divide and support four Summits. Those Parts and Magnified at 6, and 7. The Calix at 8, is open'd to shew the Rudiments of the See

VIRTUES.

Sage is a grateful Aromatic and gentle Astringent, it is chiefly used by in boiling Water, as a Drink in Fevers.

T. Sheldrake delin.